

CHEROKEE HIKING CLUB

2023 CALENDAR OF EVENTS

Every Wednesday Jack Callahan and Jennifer Schroll lead a walk on the Cleveland Greenway, typically about 4 miles. The group meets at the Greenway bridge across Mouse Creek at 4:30 pm. The end of the bridge joins the parking lot in front of Perkits Yogurt. The walk is made rain or shine.

Every Third Thursday of the month Jack Callahan, Gail and Edmond Gray host a breakfast at Old Fort Resturant on 25th street in Cleveland. The meal starts at 8:30 am. Everyone is invited.

IMPORTANT: IF YOU WANT TO JOIN AN EVENT, YOU MUST CONTACT THE HIKE/EVENT LEADER. THAT WAY THEY WILL BE ABLE TO CONTACT YOU IF AN EVENT IS CANCELLED DUE TO INCLEMINT WEATHER, CHANGE OF MEETING TIME OR PLACE OR OTHER FACTORS.

January 14, 2023 Lookout Wild Film Festival, Walker Theater, Chattanooga Tennessee. See website for additional information.

January 19, 2023 Breakfast at Old Fort Resturant Meet at 8:30 am. Contact Jack Callahan at 423-284-7885 for additional information.

January 27, 2023 Westmore Church of God Game Dinner and Outdoor Expo. The expo doors open at 5:00pm. The Club will have a table displaying information about the Hiking Club and a series of slides via laptop to illustrate events that the club is involved in. At 6:00 pm the doors will open for the Game Dinner; cost is $20.00 per person. The dinner ticket also allows you to be eligible for the prize drawings, which include a wide variety of very good items. Some of the things given away last year included kayaks, tents, fishing gear, shotguns, and trekking poles, to mention a few. To purchase tickets, go to the Westmore Church of God website. Jack and Margaret Callahan and Jennifer Schroll will be staffing the club display table. For additional information, contact Jack Callahan at 423-284-7885.

January 28, 2023 Maintenance Day to work on the Childer's Creek Trail. We will be working on restoring some of the tread in an area about a mile or so in. We will be joined by others from the Benton MacKaye Trail Association to help complete this task. They will furnish the tools but you will need to wear boots, bring your work gloves, and at least two liters of water and snacks. They will furnish hard hats and safety glasses if you do not already have those. After work that afternoon, a volunteer will be serving us a meal. So please bring a $5 donation to help pay for that. We really can use your help, so I hope you will put this on your calendar. Also, I do need to know how many will be helping so I can turn in a number to the chef to ensure enough food is prepared. You may text me-James Anderson-at 423-715-8824 to let me know you will be helping. We will meet at the Big Bend parking lot at 9 am. That's on the road that goes from Reliance up to the Powerhouse and where trout fisherman often park.

February 3, 2023 Walk in the Woods, a walk using the two loops at the Johnston Woods Retreat off Highway 11 just south of Cleveland. The first loop is 1.2 miles and the second is 2.9 miles for a total of 4.2 miles if you walk both. It is considered easy with little elevation change. It passes through both pine and hardwood forests and provides a pleasant hike close to town. The hike leader is James Anderson. Text at 423-715-8824 if you want to be advised of any changes and/or hike cancellation. If that isn't an issue for you, then you can just show up at the trailhead parking area at the designated time. Meet at the trailhead at 10am.

February 9, 2023 Monthly Club Meeting We will meet at the Etowah Senior Center at 6:00 pm, and enjoy a pot luck supper, followed by a brief business meeting. Following that, there will be a presentation by Jack Callahan on the basics of reading a USGS topographic map, with a discussion on contour lines, map scale, and magnetic declination to name a few. Next there will be a discussion on compass/map navigation by Jennifer Schroll. This will include how to adjust for magnetic declination, determining an azimuth, and following the azimuth to the desired point of interest. This presentation will be an introductory session for the upcoming club event on February 11, at Harrison Bay.

February 11, 2023 Harrison Bay Map/Compass Orienteering Course Depart from Cleveland Park and Ride at 9:00 am. Put your map and compass skills to the test on this 1.5 mile orienteering course set up at Harrison Bay State Park. Bring a Phone to take a picture of the map on the kiosk and bring a compass to keep you “on course”. This activity is rated easy, but beware there is not a trail, so some terrain will be rough. Hike leader, Jennifer Schroll 423-284-1256, Jennifergeologist@gmail.com.

February 13, 2023 Rhododendron Trail at the Ocoee White Water Center Easy beginner hike of approximately 1.2 miles along the Ocoee River on a graded trail. For meetup time and location contact Clare Sullivan at 404-849-0872 of clare7982@gmail.com

February 16, 2023 Breakfast at Old Fort Resturant, Cleveland at 8:30 am. Contact Jack Callahan at 423-284-7885 for information.

February 18, 2022 Rock Creek Trail in Little Frog Wilderness - We will meet at the Thunder Rock Campground parking lot at 9 a.m. for the quick car shuttle to the trailhead. The hike is approximately eight miles beginning at the Rock Creek trailhead on Hwy. 64 and returning via the Dry Pond Lead Trail (Benton MacKaye Trail). There is a small stream crossing at Laurel Creek , which is usually easy, but crossing Rock Creek will require fording the cold-water stream. Water shoes and hiking poles for balance are highly recommended. Along the way there should be great views of the nearby mountains as the trail goes up the side of Panther Knob and into the beautiful Pressley Cove where Rock Creek is encountered. This hike is considered strenuous due to the length of the hike and several moderate climbs; it is not for beginners. The hike will be canceled in the event of snow/ice on the roads. Contact Hike Leader Randy Morris at 423-650-0485 if interested in attending.

March 5, 2023 Lula Lake Depart from Cleveland Park and Ride at 9:00am. There is a maximum of 12 spots for this hike and we must carpool in three vehicles. This hike is 4.5 mile, rated easy to moderate. About 700-foot elevation change, or rest near the lake, about 2 miles all flat. We will hike the classic loop, which includes Lula Lake, Lula Falls, and a bluff overview of the Chattanooga Valley. Bring snacks and water. Lunch stop in Chattanooga after the hike. Hike leader Jennifer Schroll 423-284-1256, Jennifergeologist@gmail.com.

March 7, 2023 Black Mountain, Tennessee, portion of the Cumberland Trail Approximately 9 miles with about 1600-foot elevation gain. Moderate to difficult due to the length. See a cave, great rock formations, old spring house and building foundations of a former residence. Meet at Spring City McDonalds at 9:00 am EST to carpool to the trailhead. Text Sue Robinson at 423-519-9751 if you plan to attend.

March 9, 2023 Monthly Club Meeting Meet at the Etowah Senior Center, 435 Cooper Street, Etowah at 6:00 pm for a pot luck supper, and a brief business meeting, followed by a presentation by Ms. Savana Keeton. Ms. Keeton is the Operations Coordinator for the Cumberland Trails Conference. She will give us an overview of the CT, status of portions to be completed, and primary things going on with the trail.

Monday, Mar. 20 - Caney Creek Trail Rating: Moderate/Difficult Length: 6 miles
See the remains of the historically popular village of Caney Creek. The village was built by Eastern TN Power Co in 1918 for employees. Being very modern for 1918 – 1944, the village enjoyed public sidewalks, city water, fire hydrants, telephones, a lighted tennis court, plus public transportation via a trolley. Located on the Ocoee River, Hwy 64, Polk County. Contact Clare Sullivan at 404-849-0872 or clare7982@gmail.com

March 27-30, 2023 Backpack on the Benton Mackaye Trail from the Blue Ridge GA area to the Thunder Rock Campground on Highway 64. This trip crosses many of the ridges that can be seen from the Cleveland area. With the leaves still off the trees we should have some nice views toward both the west and east of the ridgelines. The trip is considered strenuous and will cover approximately 38-40 miles. More details will be released later in regard to proposed daily hike lengths and other logistical information related to shuttles etc. If you are interested, please contact James Anderson the hike leader at 423-715-8824 so you can be included in any of those discussions. As we get closer to the anticipated hike dates, if the weather is forecasted to be especially rainy or cold, then we will make a decision about whether or not to cancel the trip.

April 1, 2023 Walls of Jericho Hike Depart from Cleveland Park and Ride at 8:30 am. This is an 8+ mile hike, rated moderate to strenuous, due to the elevation and an area of poor trail tread. After the trip to the area, we will do a short car shuttle to the TN Hiker Trailhead and descend approximately 1500 feet into Mill Creek gorge. We will cross over Mill Creek and Turkey Creek, passing through a campsite and old graveyard, and make our way along a difficult section of trail to the Walls of Jericho. The walls are a unique karst feature appearing and disappearing streams, and a natural amphitheater in the streambed made of limestone with numerous fossils. Picturesque water features abound. On our return, we will take the trail to the Alabama trailhead, approximately 2.5 miles of steep incline, Bring a lunch and plenty of water. Return time 5-6 pm, or stop for supper on the way home. Hike leader Jennifer Schroll, 423-284-1256, Jennifergeologist@gmail.com.

April 11, 2023 Cloudland Canyon Hike Meet at the Cleveland Park and Ride at 9:00 am and drive to Cloudland Canyon. Will need two vehicles for shuttle when we arrive. Hike will include the trail along the West Rim with two very impressive waterfalls, then out to the Sidon's Gulch trail. Total distance of hike is approximately 9 miles, rated strenuous, due to the distance and a long series of steps required to access the waterfall. Hike leader, Buddy Arnold, 601-415-3551, we\_arnold@outlook.com.

April 13, 2023 Monthly Club Meeting Meet at 6:00 at the Etowah Senior Center for pot luck supper and a short business meeting, followed by a presentation by Rob Coombs. Rob will discuss the choice of "To Hike or not to Hike" as we mature. I will be his primary focus.

April 17, 2023 McCamy Lake trail at Chilhowee Campground. Easy 1.2 miles around the lake. Contact Clare Sullivan 404-849-0872, clare7982@gmail.com for information on meeting time and location.

April 20, 2023 Breakfast at Old Fort Restaurant, Cleveland 8:30 am. Contact Jack Callahan 423-284-7885.

April 21-24, 2023 Old Stone Fort Archeological Park We will car camp at the park campground. (I have site 19) On Saturday we will hike the Shake Rag Hollow Trail on the campus of University of the South. Hike is about 5 miles rated difficult due to the elevation change and tread. This trail is an excellent walk through numerous wildflowers, rock outcrops and small waterfalls. Lunch and water required. On Sunday we will have a guided tour of the Old Stone Fork site by one of the Park interpretive specialists. This will be an easy walk, within a short distance of our campsite. We will have a campfire every night and possibly some Pie Iron cookoffs. There are several trail options at the park and at the University property, so we can add more if individuals choose to. Everyone is responsible for making their own campsite reservation, and I recommend you do so quickly if you plan to attend. Do not forget to utilize the veteran or senior discount. If you just want to make a day trip and not camp, you will need to contact hike leader Jack Callahan at 423-284-7885 to confirm the meeting time and location for the days activities. Hike leaders Lucia Case and Jack Callahan.

APRIL 26 - 29, 2023 WEDNESDAY – SATURDAY SPRING WILDFLOWER PILGRIMAGE GSMNP - The SWFP is an annual nonprofit event [that] features professionally-guided walks, exhibits, and other learning opportunities to explore the region's rich natural and cultural resources. Pilgrims from more than 40 states and several countries make the pilgrimage each year to learn more about fungi, ferns, wildflowers, trees and shrubs, medicinal plants, insects (terrestrial and aquatic), salamanders and snakes, birds, mammals (bats to bears), journaling, art and photography, and park history.

April 28, 2023 Johnson Woods Walk The Walk in the Woods is actually a walk using the two loops at the Johnston Woods Retreat off Highway 11 just south of Cleveland. The first loop is 1.2 miles and the second is 2.9 miles for a total of 4.2 miles if you walk both. It is considered easy with little elevation change. It passes through both pine and hardwood forests and provides a pleasant hike close to town. The hike leader is James Anderson. Text me at 423-715-8824 if you want to be advised of any changes and/or hike cancellation. If that isn't an issue for you, then you can just show up at the trailhead parking area at the designated time of 9:00am.

April 29, 2023 Grundy Forest/Fiery Gizzard Hike Hike to Sycamore Falls on the Fiery Gizzard Trail, then return via the Grundy Forest loop through the former CCC Camp Interpretive trail where there are many pink lady slippers if the timing is right. Approximately 6 miles moderate hike with mostly good tread and moderate grades. After hike we will stop by the Old Dutch Bakery for some treats to consume on the way home. Meet at the Cleveland Park and Ride at 8:00 am to carpool to the trailhead in Tracy City. Approximate drive time is 1.75 hours. Hike leader Marrie Lassiter and Jack Callahan, contact Jack 423-284-7885 if you plan to attend.

May 2, 2023 Flats Mountain Hike Approximately 6 miles, rated moderate, with some elevation gain. This hike will travel through an area with numerous pink lady slippers if the timing is right. Will need two vehicles for shuttle. Meet at the Tellico Plains Visitor Center in Tellico Plains at 9:00 am to set up shuttle. Hike leader Sue Robinson 423-519-9751 if you plan to attend.

MAY 2,3,4, 2023 BIRD WATCHING AT RADNOR LAKE STATE PARK, WITH CAMPOUT AT CEDARS OF LEBANON STATE PARK

We will camp or rent cabins at Cedars of Lebanon on the nights of the 2nd and 3rd, and travel to Radnor Lake on the 3rd, spending the day there and bird watching on several of their trails as well as spending time in the Barbara J. Mapp Aviary Education Center. The center is a wheelchair accessible boardwalk and provides access to the birds of prey, as well as other animals. Marrie Lasater is very familiar with Radnor and will be our guide at the park. Kelly Ducham and Bob Dornfeld are club members with experience in birding and will assist us in the typical procedures of birdwatching and the use of appropriate phone apps for bird call identification. When we arrive at Cedars of Lebanon on Tuesday, we will hike some of the trails at the park.

Radnor Lake is approximately a 2.5-hour drive from Cleveland, so that is part of the reason for staying at Cedars of Lebanon, but if there are individuals who prefer to make it a one-day event, we will meet you at Radnor Lake. Contact Jack Callahan at 423-284-7885 for additional information. THIS EVENT IS A VERY SLOW-PACED WALK, WITH A LOT OF STOPPING, LOOKING AND LISTENING INVOLVED. Event leaders include Marie Lasater, Kelly Ducham, Bob Dornfeld and Jack Callahan. There are several cabins currently available at Cedars of Lebanon, so if you plan to rent one, suggest you do so quickly. There are 117 campsites, and showers and sites with electricity are available.

May 6, 2023 Coke Oven Tour, Dunlap Tennessee Visit Museum and tour the remains of the 268 beehive coke ovens, at 350 Mountain View Road, Dunlap. The museum contains many items used in the mining of coal in the area, as well as the largest collection of coal mining photographs in the state. (if we have 10 attending we can get a guided tour of the museum, no charge) This will be an easy walking event. There is no admission. Afterwards we will eat lunch at a local restaurant in Dunlap or nearby (possibly the Cookie Jar). Meet at the Cleveland Park and Ride I-75/Exit 25 at 8:30 am to carpool to site. Hike Leader Jack Callahan 423-284-7885.

May 11, 2023 Monthly Club Meeting (location to be determined) Pot luck supper and brief business meeting, followed by our outstanding long distance hikers Otis and Clayton Pannell. Otis and Clayton will lead an informal discussion about the trials and tribulations of through hiking the Appalachian Trail. They will share tips on managing food, use of shuttles and hostels, and some of the interesting tales from the trail. You do not want to miss this meeting!!

October 12, 2023 Monthly Club Meeting. This month James and Phyllis Anderson will host the club at their residence. Plan on arriving at 6:00 pm, to enjoy a pot luck supper, followed by a short business meeting. Then we will gather around James's outdoor fire pit and enjoy a great fire and watch the dark chase away the last rays of sunlight on Bean Mountain. Event leader James Anderson, 423-715-8824.

October 14, 2023 SATURDAY Hike to the Hangover We will drive to the Wolf Laurel Trailhead and will hike up about 1.5 miles to the crest of the ridge, the follow the BMT to Naked Ground and the Hangover. Expect a strenuous hike of about 8 miles. The Hangover location is a special place, a barren rock outcrop with the land falling away on three sides. There are great views of the southern end of the Smokies, to the east toward Fontana and to the west toward Vonore. Hike leaders Rick and Brenda Harris, harrisri@aol.com 513-260-1184.

October 16, 2023 Ducktown Basin Museum 1.0 miles. Easy walk and interesting items in the museum about the history of copper mining in the area. Contact Clare Sullivan Hike leader for meetup time and location at 404-849-0872, or clare7982@gmail.com.

October 21, 2023 Trail Maintenance on the Childer's Creek section of the BMT. Meet at the Childer's Creek trailhead at 9am. Wear boots and bring gloves. A hard hat will be provided if you don't have one already. Bring two liters of water and snacks. Please let James Anderson know if you are planning to help. 423-715-8824. We will be doing general maintenance work such as brushing out the trail, lopping, and removing any blown down trees

October 29-November 2, 2023 Tallulah Gorge State Park Campout. The park is about 22 miles south of Helen, Georgia. The gorge is a 1000 foot deep streambed adjacent to the campground. One day there will be a trip to the Currahee Museum in Toccoa, Georgia, where the enlistees arrived at the train station to begin training for paratrooper jump school. We may be able to get a guided tour of the old training site by a veteran at the museum. (still in the works). Another possibility are day trips to Hellen and the Foxfire Museum, within less than an hour's drive. A hike down into the gorge is also an option, along with other trails in the area. A map of the campground was emailed to club members on January 14, so individuals can begin making reservations. Event Leader, Jack Callahan 423-284-7885.

November 2-5, 2023. BMTA Hike Fest in Tellico Plains TN. There will be multiple hikes daily ranging from Easy to Difficult. Rick Harris is in charge of the hikes. Folks can attend the hikes even if they are unable to attend the Annual Meeting and dinner on Saturday, Nov. 4. Some of the hikes we know for sure that will be held are:

Bob Stratton Bald

Conasaga Falls

Coker Creek Falls

Bald River Falls

Indian Boundary Lake Trail

Unicoi Turnpike Trail

There will be a Mexican Dinner social on Friday, Nov. 3 after the hikes. On Saturday, Nov. 5 there will be a BMTA Annual Meeting and dinner with a guest speaker that promises to be intriguing. The Mexican Dinner social will be free, the Sat. night dinner will be $30. For more information contact Rick Harris 513-260-1184, or Clare Sullivan, 404-849-0872 or clare7982@gmail.com.

November 7-10, 2023 T Backpacking Hike North Carolina The hike is near Franklin, NC. Begin the event by driving to Standing Indian Campground near Franklin. Will leave vehicles at the Backcountry Info Center there. The hike is rated as strenuous, due to elevation gains, but much of the hike is moderate. There are numerous scenic overlooks along the trail. Total distance is approximately 25 miles. There are shelters along the trail, but most are small capacity, so you will need to bring your tents. The hike is limited to eight.

Day one Drive to Murphy, then to Standing Indian Campground. Meet at the Backcountry Info Center at noon. From there we will hike three miles to Long Branch shelter via Blackwell Gap trail and the AT.

Day two hike 8.9 miles to Carter Gap shelter on the AT.

Day three hike 7.6 miles to the Standing Indian shelter

Day Four Hike 4.5 miles to Backcountry Info Center via AT and Kimsey Creek trail. Return to home base. Event Leader Buddy Arnold, 601-414-3551, we\_arnold@outlook.com.

November 13, 2023 Project Chimp Event Travel to the site approximately 10 miles east of Blue Ridge GA, arriving at 10 am. Visit the interpretive site and walk several trails in the area, for a total of about 4 miles. Return to Blue Ridge for a late lunch in a local restaurant. As we get closer to the date a meeting location and time will be developed to carpool from Cleveland. Drive time is approximately 1.5 hours. Event leaders, Letha Kelly, Clare Sullivan and Jack Callahan, 423-284-7885.

November 16, 2023 Third Thursday Breakfast at Old Fort Restaurant in Cleveland. Contact Jack Callahan at 423-284-7885 for any questions.

November 17, 2023 The Walk in the Woods is actually a walk using the two loops at the Johnston Woods Retreat off Highway 11 just south of Cleveland. The first loop is 1.2 miles and the second is 2.9 miles for a total of 4.2 miles if you walk both. It is considered easy with little elevation change. It passes through both pine and hardwood forests and provides a pleasant hike close to town. The hike leader is James Anderson. Text me at 423-715-8824 if you want to be advised of any changes and/or hike cancellation. If that isn't an issue for you, then you can just show up at the trailhead parking area at the designated time. Meet time 10:00 am.

December 9, 2023 Annual Christmas Party...Final arrangements still being made.
